Mrs. J. H. Dade,

Swift Current, Sask.

Dear Mrs. Dade:

The University of Toronto has no department of elocution and there is no likelihood at all that the Senate would be willing to grant a y affiliation to any institution on these grounds.

Yours sincerely,

President.

Dear Sir, - I beg to acknowledge a letter of congratulations from the University and the Faculty of Medicine. Be good enough to accept my sincere thanks and to convey the same to Dean Clarke.

I fully recognize that in receiving this honour I am but the representative of the Cleaning Station whose services have been thus recognized. No Commanding Officer ever had more faithful and efficient Cooperation of all ranks than it was my privilege to enjoy. The honour is theirs.

Faithfully Yours

Dear Mr. Davidson:

Many thanks for sending me the clipping. It is interesting that the French paper took notice of my few paragraphs.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. George P. Day,

Yale University Press.

Dear Sir:

I have to thank you for the announcement of the "Chronicles of America" which you have been good enough to send me. It seems to me to be very comprehensive and having the imprimatur of Yale University upon it it is guaranteed to be well done and I should suppose have a wide circulation. I am sending the announcement to our Librarian.

Yours sincerely,

President.

written me that he had been notified that he was to get two weeks of much needed rest in England after twenty-three months of almost continuous service in France. Two hours after writing me he was compelled to report sick and gradually sank into unconsciousness and died almost before the Cable reached us that he was ill. He died from sheer exhaustion and over work. He was a boy of good habits; never touched a drop of liquor in his life and was a splendid boy in every way. He was

My Dear Sir Robt:

It was very kind and thoughtful of you to write your kind note of sympathy for Mrs Deacon and myself in the loss of our deeply loved Son in France on July 28th and I wish to thank you from a full heart for your letter. He was our eldest son, a fine looking, big manly chap, the soul of honor and we mourn him deeply. He had just for many years my personal companion and to lose him at 22 years of age is a trial that takes all my fortitude to bear. But the kind words & many friends like you have helped to cheer his dear mother and myself and we thank you for them

Yours very sincerely

Mr. J. C. Fowler,

Milwaukee, Wis.

Dear Sir:

The extension work that is done by the University of Toronto is so small that no permanent appointment is made in connection with it. In the matter of the University High School I may say that hitherto the appointments have all been made from those who hold specialists certificates from the Province of Ontario. I am sending your letter, however, to Dean Falconer of the University School.

Yours sincerely,

President.

Dear Sir Robert.

The Kirk Session has been arranging for a Series of "Sermons or lectures for the Times", and asks me to invite you to deliver one. If you can possibly see your way to do us this honour, on Sunday Evening, May 5th.

If you can come you will do us and the community a great service. Personally I shall take it as a great personal kindness.

I know how busy you must be, but feel sure you must have something beside you. Do not hesitate to give the address you have given elsewhere a trial. We need an Apostle to the Gentiles at York. Though Dr. Symonds is doing one of our Series!

The Session is giving an Honorarium which will more than cover expenses.

Will you be so good as to wire "collect" at your earliest convenience?

Sincerely hoping you can do us this favour, with kind regards, Sincerely yours George Dumas
